Spectral estimates and basis properties for block operator matrices

M. Langer

In this talk I will discuss estimates for gaps in the essential spectrum of block operator matrices and also estimates for eigenvalues in such gaps. Moreover, I will present results on basis properties of components of eigenvectors corresponding to certain eigenvalues of such block operator matrices. The results are applied to block operator matrices whose entries are differential operators of mixed order.